

THE CONSULS OF THE VICARIATE

Having arrived in the Holy Land, Laedron Telpist continues his journey to halt a war provoked by the Heraldan church. He discovers that the war he so desperately wants to stop is merely a prelude to something much older than he could have imagined. With the aid of his allies, Laedron must uncover hidden plots, bring justice to the rampant corruption, and end a conflict before it claims more victims. Laedron, his friends, and the Shimmering Dawn...

Reader's Opinions

I'm giving this book a 3.8. The second book is better than the first. The plot and character development is good, and the writing style is decent. Overall, it is a good quick read.
