Reader's Opinions

This book is very informative, entertaining, and full of little tips and tricks that can be translated to other art applications apart from comic inking. If you have a chance, take a minute and brush through it, you won't regret it.

This is a good introduction to the art of comic book inking. Often misunderstood, inking is NOT just going over the lines laid down by the penciler. This book shows the different styles of various inkers...
