

DUKE'S DEN

Amelia's world came crashing down when her parents separated and she was forced to relocate with her mother to a new part of town. But when Duke and Gabriella move into the suite downstairs with their menagerie of exotic animals, Amelia feels like she's been thrown a lifeline. Helping care for the animals gives Amelia...

Reader's Opinions

Becky Citra has created a beautiful collection of complex multicultural characters and placed them in my neighbourhood. How could I not love it?The book is set in my neck of the woods here in East Vancouver. Sadly these older bungalows are being torn down to build huge homes, but they still exist. There is something profound about reading...

Moving is never an easy thing to do. But when it is complicated by a parental separation, new struggles usually ensue. This is the setting for Becky Citra's newest book, Duke's Den. Told with humour, and insight, Citra has created a wonderfully heartfelt tale filled with a menagerie of unwanted...
