Reader's Opinions

This book is great for a child who is beginning to read. The illustrations are great and in parts of the book, the words are replaced with pictures. This would seem to help the reader. The book is repetitive because it repeats "that I'll pack in the bag I'm taking to Grandma's" over and over again. Overall, this is a fun and cute book...

This book is an enjoyable one in the style of The House that Jack Built. It's a fun sing song to read aloud. Also, I love that the main character is very gender neutral. I remembered reading it...
