Reader's Opinions

This book has a good story line but did not really take off for me. There were sections that just bored me to tears. I thought it was written in a rather simplistic way with no real depth or atmosphere. The characters did not...

Alternating between 1816 and 2010, I initially knew the connection but couldn't quite grasp its significance until the two worlds collided at the very last chapter. Done without elements of fantasy and science fiction, this novel weaves two timelines in breathtaking language and pace with just a touch of comprehension.
